

ASANTE AKIM NORTH DISTRICT ASSEMBLY, AGOGO

NUTRITION ORIENTED INTERVENTION PROGRAM

NUTRITION- ORIENTED INTERVENTION / ACTIVITY	RATIONAL FOR THE PROGRAMME	IMPLEMENTING AGENCY / COLLABORATION	TARGET GROUP / POPULATION
Training on Vitamin A supplementation during MOPV2 round 2 campaign	the rational for this programme was to vaccinate children under 5 years to make them immune to type 2 polio virus and also to improve their vitamin A coverage	Ghana Health Service	Children under 5 years
Supportive supervision and monitoring on girls iron folic acid tablets supplementation programme's in schools and CHPS zones in the Asante Akim North District (January -March)	This programme was intended to reduce anaemia in adolescent girls	Ghana Health Service	Adolescent girls from 10-19 years
Training of teaching and Non-teaching staffs on Nutrition-Friendly Schools Initiative (NFSI) in the five schools under the programme	This programme was adopted as the platform on which to implement a set of school-based health and nutrition activity which aims at improving school environment to make it more nutrition sensitive	Ghana Health Service Ghana Education Service UNICEF WHO	Public schools
Report on Food demonstration sessions in ten (10) ADP communities	The rational for this programme was to expose mothers and caregivers to a more locally available nutrient rich foods, fruits and vegetables. The food demonstration is a "how to" presentation that involves instructing and guiding participants about ingredient selection, guiding them through each step of a recipe and tasting a finished meal	Ghana Health Service	Mothers, Caregivers and Children under 5 years old in eight (8) communities